

WEX Terms and Conditions Updated

The Murray Irrigation Water Exchange (WEX) Terms and Conditions will change from Tuesday, 15 September 2020, in-line with customer feedback.

The updated WEX Terms and Conditions, and a version with tracked changes, are available on our website, here.

Operating Mode

The system is currently being operated in alignment with Mode Two – Dry operations.

What does this mean for customers?

- Channels operated at full supply height only where orders are placed, or future orders are known
- Four days' notice required for orders;
- Online ordering system will automatically offer 96 hours (four days) in advance
- Orders reviewed daily and customers contacted when water can be delivered earlier than four days
- Stock and domestic supply - customers should call Customer Operations to request temporary intervention where there is an inadequate supply height.

Contact Customer Operations with any further queries.

Customer appointments

Customers who wish to attend the office can ring Customer Operations to make an appointment. Our offices remain closed to the public to ensure that we comply with COVID-19 safe regulations.

We encourage customers to continue to use our online customer portal or contact the Customer Operations team via phone or email with their queries.

Customers are also reminded that accounts can be paid at any Commonwealth Bank branch or posted to Murray Irrigation at PO Box 528, Deniliquin, NSW, 2710.

Domestic deemed usage credit

Murray Irrigation is offering a 2ML water allocation credit for unused stock and domestic pipe outlets for the 2020/21 season.

Application forms are available here and must be returned to Customer Operations by 5.00pm on Friday, 25 September 2020.

Contact Customer Operations for a copy of the form, or with any queries.

Federal water announcement a step in the right direction

Federal Water Minister, the Hon. Keith Pitt's announcement last week to end water buybacks and change the Murray-Darling Basin Authority (MDBA) is a step in the right direction for Southern Riverina farmers, according to Murray Irrigation's Chairman, Phil Snowden.
