

Quarterly Invoices

September 2020 Quarter One invoices were issued to customers last week.

Due to a nation-wide issue with Office 365, Murray Irrigation has discovered that a number of customers did not receive their invoice.

To rectify this issue, the invoices have been resent to email recipients.

If you received the original email, you can delete the duplicate invoice.

All details remain the same.

Due date for this Quarter One invoice is Monday, 30 November 2020.

Murray Irrigation AGM

This year, Murray Irrigation will conduct its Annual General Meeting (AGM) online.

This change is in-line with current COVID-19 restrictions and temporary legislation changes for AGMs.

When: 10.30am, Wednesday, 25 November 2020

Where: Online via the virtual meeting platform.

Shareholders will receive further information about this, and how to attend online, in the coming weeks.

Environmental Flows

Murray Irrigation is working with the Department of Planning, Industry and Environment (DPIE) to achieve environmental outcomes throughout the footprint.

Environmental watering is currently taking place in the Cockran, Jimaringle, Tuppall, Buccaneit, Yarrein, and Thule creeks.

Access track clearing

Contractors are slashing along Murray Irrigation's access tracks in the Deniliquin, Finley and Wakool areas.

This work is part of our standard maintenance practice to ensure clear access to these areas.

Landholder Association AGMs

Wakool Landholders Association

Soil health day

Denimein Landholders Association, in conjunction with West Berriquin Irrigators Council, invite all interested landholders to an informative soil health day presented by David Hardwick, a very experienced soil health coach.

After people, soil is the most important asset in your business.

Join us as we explore soil, soil health and soil fertility, looking at soil from a 21st century view!

Bring a 20cm by 20cm by 20cm cube of soil from your place for the day.

Soils 101
